ALL EYES TURNED TOWARD ALBANIA

Where French and Italians Are Pressing Success Against the Austrians

WEST FRONT INACTIVE

Situation Is Obscure With Germany Making No Reprisal For Assassination of Ambassador

(By the Associated Press).

For the moment the eyes of the Allied world are turned away from the battle front in France, where the Germans are believed to be preparing for a resumption of their offensive against the positions held by the soldiers of the Entente nations. The most active area in the various theatres of the war is in Albania, where the French and Italians are continuing their successes against the Austrians. While it is not expected that far-reaching results will be brought about by the offensive in this section of the world, the movement has in it possibilities which seem very interesting. The rapid progress made by the French and Italians, the probability that the Austro-Bulgarian line to the east of Lake Ochrida may be outflanked and the possibility that an offensive may be launched along the Salonika front tend to make the event in Albania some importance at a time when the main battle area is quiet.

There have been indications recently that an offensive might be begun in Macedonia, if for no other reason than to draw Austrian, and probably German troops from Italy and France. It is reported that the Bulgarians are war-weary and that a powerful blow along the front north of Salonika might bring about notable military and political results. The Teutonic allies in Macedonia have been savagely attacking the Entente lines, but have been driven back.

French troops continue their offensive tactics east of the Metz forest, along the line from the Marne to the Aisne. The fighting has gradually extended southward along the front southwest of Soissons, with the French repeating their operations of pushing the enemy from strong positions from which he might easily reach vital ground along the French line of defense.

Along the British front there have been intermittent artillery duels, deepening here and there into bombardments of great intensity. This has been the case east of Arras, where the Germans have drenched Australian positions with shells and then attacked in an attempt to regain territory lost when the Australians and Americans attacked on July 4. The enemy has been repulsed with losses. Near Merris, the British have improved their positions in a minor action.

There have been no events of an unusual character along the American-held sectors of the line, except at Chateau-Thierry, where American aviators have been active. One squadron has penetrated far behind the German lines and it is believed it brought back valuable information as to the conditions there.

The situation in Russia remains obscure and German has as yet made no move as the sequel of the assassination of her ambassador, Count Mirbach, at Moscow.

In the mountain sectors of the Balkans, the Austrians have been pushed back slightly in the Brenita valley and on the Asiago plateau.

OUR AIRMEN LEARN OF ENEMY PREPARATIONS

Aviators Penetrate Hun Occupied Territory and Secure Valuable Information

(By the Associated Press.)

With the American forces on the Marne, July 10.—American pursuit planes, flying in squadron formation, penetrated German occupied territory north of Chateau-Thierry for a distance of 50 miles today and chased and shot down German machines which they encountered.

The Americans secured considerable information and observed the positions being made by the Germans. They saw over many newly constructed German flying fields, including the famous Richthofen flying circus. The planes were at a height of 5,000 feet on the course of a great part of the day. All the Americans safely returned.

PERSHING'S MESSAGE TO ELKS.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 10.—General Pershing, who heads the list of 50 members of the order of Elks in the military service of the country today, called a message of greeting to the 50,000 members of the order. The message was read at yesterday's session of the Elks' convention and was as follows:

"I send greetings and express my confidence in the loyalty and patriotism of all members of the order of Elks and their undivided and hearty support of our President in this crisis of our nation's history."

FUNDS FOR RAILROADS

Washington, D. C., July 10.—Pending execution of contracts governing compensation to railroads under federal operation, the railroad administration is advancing funds to the roads wherever necessity is shown. In a statement today explaining specifically that dividends of the Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio had not been deferred on account of delay in completing the form of contract, Director General Mead said the directors of these roads would meet in July to consider dividends.

"The railroad administration upon showing of reasonable necessity, is making advances to railroads on account of just compensation until the contract can be agreed upon and executed," he added. "It is my desire and plan to do every reasonable and just thing for railroad security holders pending the execution of the contract."

YOUNGEST SON OF T. R. DOWNS FIRST GOTH

Lieutenant Quentin Roosevelt, in Thrilling Encounter With Planes, Is Victorious

(By the Associated Press.)

With the American Forces on the Marne, July 10.—Lieutenant Quentin Roosevelt, youngest son of former president Roosevelt, brought down his first German airplane this afternoon in a fight north of Chateau-Thierry.

Lieutenant Roosevelt, with three other pilots, was flying at a height of 5,000 yards eight miles east of the German lines when the machines became separated. Soon after, Roosevelt saw three planes which he thought were his companions and he started to join them. He was approaching the planes from the rear when he saw his mistake for the machines were Huns. Roosevelt at once opened fire and 50 shots penetrated the fuselage of the nearest German machine and it went into a spinning nose dive, falling through the clouds, 2,000 yards below. The lieutenant was certain it must have crashed for no pilot voluntarily goes into a 2,000 yard spinning nose dive. The two remaining German airplanes attacked Roosevelt, but he managed to make good his escape and returned to the field, himself and his machine unscathed.

BRITISH FLYERS SUPREME IN AIR

They Have Hounded the Hostile Pilots Until Battles Are Behind German Lines

With the British Army in France, July 10.—Superiority in the air, clear cut and unquestionable, rests with the British flying men today. There have been periods in the past when it seemed that the slightest addition to either one side or the other might tip the balance temporarily, but no such condition exists now. British airmen are supreme. Not only have the king's flyers been making a decided upper hand in the "hense fighting in the air but the bulk of the British squadron has far exceeded that of the enemy in vigor and results. In the more spectacular field of operation, aerial fighting, the British have hounded hostile pilots until the greater part of their battles have occurred east of the German lines and in numerous engagements staged every day, when the weather permitted, great numbers of hostile machines have been destroyed.

Not only have the railways, aerodromes and other vital objectives been effectively bombed, but the loss of life in German concentration camps has been exceedingly heavy. Captured documents add testimony to this and prisoners admit it. The British have consistently conducted their raids from an exceedingly low height, some times coming down to within 500 feet of the ground to those heights. The Germans, on the other hand, seldom venture below 10,000 feet because of their fear of the British anti-aircraft devices.

RAIDERS KILLED MANY GIRLS.

London, England, July 10.—In a recent German raid on the Belgians, more than 50 girls were killed by air bombs launched upon an ambulance car at Launoy, Belgium, the first front. According to a special dispatch from The Hague, 50 bombs were dropped in the immediate neighborhood of the park, and several struck a large villa about 100 yards from the hospital.

Of the many girls in the villa engaged in making bandages and repairing linen for the wounded, 30 were killed instantly or died from injuries within a few minutes; 40 injured were removed from the villa, of whom 21 died later.

DEAD NUMBER 59.

Nashville, Tenn., July 10.—Official of the Nashville Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad, Chattanooga, said the number of dead as a result of the head-on collision between two passenger trains near here yesterday at 59, and the injured at 19. It is believed now that the hurt will all recover.

CITY DOES HONOR TO MAJ. MITCHEL

Thirty Thousand People Pass By His Bier in Five Hours

FUNERAL AT ST. PATRICK

Mayor Hyman and Other City Officials Unite in Honoring the Former Mayor

New York, July 10.—Silent, saddened citizens, in seemingly endless lines, marching through the roundabout of the city hall tonight, passed the flag-draped casket in which rested the body of Major John Purroy Mitchell, late mayor.

There was no shade of black within the city hall. Bay trees and palms were banked around the walls. The stairway and floor were covered with a purple carpet. On the wall above was hung an American flag, flanked by the colors of the Allies. A soft spot light played on the flag and others on the coffin, beside which was a standard of U. S. flags.

A service flag, with a narrow, black border bearing a single golden star, was draped beside the casket, while another gold service star on a shield was hung between the center pillars of the building.

At the stroke of 5, a troop of mounted police galloped into city hall park, giving warning to the thousands gathered there that the body of Major Mitchell had arrived from the home of his widowed mother to lie in state in the building where he ruled the affairs of the city for four years.

The troopers dismounted and stood at attention as Mayor John Hyman appeared on the City hall steps, flanked by his secretary and a Lieutenant of police. A military guard of honor from Governor's Island formed a lane from the hearse to the steps. Eight soldier bearers raised the casket to their shoulders and strode up the stairs. At sight of the Stars and Stripes which draped the funeral bier, deep silence fell on the thousands in the park. Mayor Hyman and other city officers, past and present, followed the bearers to the roundabout, where the coffin was placed in a bower of lilies and flowers of every hue.

A military guard of honor, which will be relieved every hour until 9 o'clock, when the funeral cortege will start for St. Patrick's cathedral, took its station at 5:30 o'clock. The iron gates of the City hall were thrown open and word was carried to the waiting throng that the body of Major Mitchell was lying in state. From that time until far into the night men, women and children filed past the casket at the rate of 200 a minute, paying a final tribute of respect. The police estimated at 10:30 o'clock that 30,000 persons had passed Major Mitchell's bier. At that time the double line that had been moving steadily for five hours came to an end and men and women began coming single file or in groups.

JERSEY GAMBLING DENS RAIDED BY THE SHERIFF

Over 500 Arrests Made, Including Bridge Webber of Rosenthal Notoriety

Hackensack, N. J., July 10.—Sheriff Courser, called out two companies of state militia this afternoon and divided the soldiers into three detachments and at 4 o'clock simultaneously raided three Bergen county hotels. Over 500 arrests were made. "Bridge Webber, a witness in the Rosenthal murder, for which four New York gunmen and Lieut. Decker of the New York police department were sent to the electric chair, was one of the prisoners.

Jack "Rivers" was another well-known New York man arrested. The hotels raided were Darschell's Riverside house, and Lelive's Halfway house at Carlstadt, and Grimes' hotel at Lindhurst. Soldiers in uniform with fixed bayonets and cartridges were thrown around each hotel. When the gamblers rushed to the open they were met and turned back. They were ordered into army trucks and taken to Hackensack. Sixty men, all former backers of the gambling game, were held for trial this morning. Within the past eight months Bergen county has been the gathering place of gamblers who found it impossible to operate in New York.

Sheriff Courser organized the raid over the head of the Bergen county prosecutor. Many well known men from North Jersey City were caught in the raid. Four truckloads of gamblinghouse equipment, including racing charts, were confiscated.

Albany, July 10.—Robert Thomas F. Cusack of the Roman Catholic diocese of Albany, who has been critically ill for several days, has been failing slowly but steadily today. Before night the Bishop's demise is considered and his physicians believe his death was a matter of a few hours only.

Troop Train Is Wrecked

Shreveport, La., July 11.—Seven cars of a troop train on the Vicksburg, Shreveport and Pineau railway are reported to have turned over near Haughton, La., 20 miles east of Shreveport, at 11:30 this morning. Two relief trains have left for the scene of the accident. No details as to the number killed or injured are available at present.

SENATE WILL PASS WIRE CONTROL MEASURE

Opponents Admit Little Probability That It Can Be Defeated

Washington, D. C., July 10.—With the formal presentation to the senate today of the Interstate Commerce committee's favorable report on the house resolution empowering the president to operate the telegraph, telephone, cable and radio systems during the war, sentiment for the measure apparently increased and later leaders predicted that it would be passed before the end of the week.

Shayman Smith, of the Interstate Commerce committee, announced tonight that the resolution will be called up for consideration tomorrow and that if prolonged debate seems probable an effort will be made to hasten a vote by displacing the prohibition bill. Managers of the latter measure, it was said, are willing to have the wire control legislation as an emergency measure given the right of war.

Adoption of the measure was regarded as certain by administration managers while some of the principal opponents admitted privately little probability of its defeat. Sherman Smith, however, endeavored to expedite the resolution today, by asking unanimous consent of the senate for its consideration but Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania objected and the resolution was sent to the calendar, subject to being called up tomorrow.

Opponents of the measure, mostly Republicans, are prepared for a vigorous attack on the grounds that the war necessity of the measure has not been demonstrated and that sufficient investigation was defeated by a majority of the committee. It is expected that several amendments will be offered including a proposal to eliminate telephone lines or at least local systems from the scope of the resolution.

ROYAL AIR ESCORT FOR KING AND QUEEN

In Their Flight Across the English Channel Last Saturday

London, England, July 10.—A royal air escort of three Belgian sea planes guarded King Albert and Queen Elizabeth on their flight over the English channel from Belgium to England on Saturday, on a trip which marked the first time in history that any ruler has ever made a flight from one country to another. The royal couple traveled in separate seaplanes, each operated by a Belgian army aviator. On the British side of the channel the King landed first near the British ship Dover. The Queen descended soon afterward. The seaplane also landed near the battleship. They started from the Belgian coast and made the trip through to England in about 50 minutes. The purpose of their visit to England was to attend the silver anniversary of King George and Queen Mary on Saturday.

This is the first time since the war began that King Albert has visited London and virtually the first time since August, 1914, that he has been outside his native land. The only times that King Albert has been outside Belgium has been on one or two informal trips to France. Queen Elizabeth was most enthusiastic about the voyage, telling about it wherever she went and when asked the details of the trip, despite the fact that the Queen had ridden in airplanes before, she had never been over the sea. The King, who had for a long time taken much interest in airplanes and has made many flights, so that among men in London he did not seem to think there was anything particularly novel about their flight.

WANT MORE HOME PAPERS

Americans Are Constantly Appealing for News, Says Red Cross Report.

London, England, July 10.—"More home newspapers is the constant appeal from the American soldiers in the camps and hospitals in Great Britain," says an American Red Cross report made public today.

The American Red Cross Library committee in London is now furnishing reading matter for 100,000 men weekly, the report states, but the supply consists largely of books.

SENECA COUNTY FOR WHITMAN.

Watertown, July 10.—The Seneca County Republican committee endorsed the administration of Governor Whitman and his candidacy for re-nomination for a third term in resolutions adopted here today.

WILL FORCE MANY OUT OF BUSINESS

Declare Opponents to Measure Taxing All Luxuries Heavily

EIGHT BILLION NEEDED

Proposal of Retail Tax of Fifty Per Cent on Jewelry Declared Ruinous

Washington, D. C., July 10.—Members of the house ways and means committee today studied with interest the list of luxury taxation suggested by the treasury department, but opposition was apparent to many of the proposals, which some committee members regarded as impracticable. The committee will take up the list item by item when it begins framing the new war revenue bill. The first protest against the treasury's suggestions came today during the committee's hearing of representatives of the wholesale and retail jewelry trade. Meyer D. Rothschild and Robert B. Steel, both of New York, declared that the proposed 50 per cent retail tax on jewelry was ruinous and would force so many concerns out of business that the government would not derive nearly as much revenue from these sources as it would under the ten per cent tax.

William H. Hill, of Detroit, Mich., who appeared before the committee today to represent the patent medicine industry, proposed the Canadian plan of adding a government tax stamp on patent medicines, the amount of the tax to be added to the selling price.

While Hill was on the stand, Representative Fordney of Michigan, ranking Republican member of the committee, said the government's actual war expenses this year, after deducting $5,000,000,000, loaned to the Allies, would be $15,000,000,000. The $5,000,000,000 which it is proposed to raise by taxation, he said, represented 40 per cent of the total actual expense and added that he did not think that amount should be raised by taxation.

Besides doubling present taxes on liquors and tobacco, quadrupling soft drink levies and making general increases in other existing rates, the treasury suggestions include taxes of 20 per cent on automobiles, bicycles, musical instruments, etc.; 10 cents a gallon on gasoline to be paid by the wholesaler; 10 per cent on hotel bills for rooms over $2.50 a day or American plan over $5; 10 per cent of all cafe or restaurant bills and taxes of unsold amounts on men's suits selling for more than $30, women's suits over $10, and coats over $30; men's hats over $4; skirts over $2; pajamas over $2; hosiery over $2; shoes over $5; gloves over $2; underwear over $3; all neckwear and canes; women's dresses over $25; skirts over $15; hats over $10; shoes over $5; lingerie over $5; corsets over $5; and all furs, furs, etc., children's clothing, including suits over $15; purses, toilet articles, etc., over $2.

In addition to all these taxes, which would be levied directly upon the consumer, the list proposes doubling the present motion picture admission tax and imposing a tax of five per cent on moving picture theatre rentals, with the present film tax eliminated.

BREWERS ARE NOTIFIED THAT COAL IS LACKING

With Which to Manufacture Beer After Present Materials Are Used

Washington, D. C., July 10.—Brewers were notified today by Fuel Administrator Garfield that they will not be able to count on a supply of coal beyond that needed to run up materials in process of manufacture including malt already manufactured. This action was taken, Mr. Garfield said, because of the present coal transportation and other shortages.

In making this announcement, Dr. Garfield disclosed that the order issued July 2, curtailing the fuel for the production of beer, "near beer" and other beverages in which cereals are used, was the result of deliberations of a committee appointed by President Wilson to consider the reduction of activities in non-war industries to save the consumption of raw material, food, labor and transportation.

This committee has appointed a special committee to study each industry with relation to a possible curtailment. This committee will report its conclusions to the various government agencies effected, which will take the necessary steps to carry out the recommendations.

EMPEROR INFLUENZA VICTIM.

Rome, Italy, July 10.—Emperor William himself has fallen a victim to the influenza that has been so prevalent in the German army, according to a Swiss source that has reached the Epte. These declare that the Emperor has gone home from the front because of the attack of Spanish grip, as it is called, and that several members of the Emperor's family are also suffering from the same malady.

NO ALIEN LANGUAGE FOR ELKS

Its Use in Order's Club House Is Forbidden by Grand Lodge at Annual Session.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 10.—Enemy alien languages are barred from use in the club houses of the Elks in a resolution unanimously adopted by the Grand Lodge in annual session here.

The convention listened today to a patriotic address by Samuel C. Lewis, and renewed its pledge to stand behind the government in its war aims and to lend every aid possible in the reconstruction period.

The big brother movement will be amplified throughout the nation in a systematic campaign. A junior police system will be used to find homes and employment for warward boys.

EFFORTS TO TRACE MONEY GIVEN "MAIL"

Banks and Brokers Under Investigation By Office of Alien Property Custodian

Washington, D. C., July 10.—Several banks and brokers are under investigation by the office of the alien property custodian in an effort to trace the exact origin and handling of more than a million dollars paid the New York "Evening Mail."

It is alleged that the Imperial German government became the owner of the paper through Dr. Edward A. Rumely, now under arrest in New York, on charges of perjury in connection with statements to the alien property custodian. Under the law, the money involved in the sale can be seized by this government if transfer was made after the United States went to war even though the money is now held by Americans.

Francis P. Garvan, chief of the alien property custodian's bureau of investigation, with headquarters in New York, held several long conferences today with Mr. Palmer. As the "Mail" is being published by the bondholders, permanent plans for administering the property will be allowed to wait until the details of the sale have been cleared up.

Department of justice officials said today they had found no evidence of a reported thirty million dollar German fund to buy American newspapers and that so far as they knew the "Mail" was the only paper the German government sought to take over.

KING AND QUEEN OF BELGIUM IN ENGLAND

Couple Land By Airplane to Attend Silver Anniversary of England's Rulers

London, England, July 10.—King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium reached England in an airplane when they came last Saturday to attend the silver anniversary of King George and Queen Mary. It was learned today.

The King and Queen of Belgium attended today a concert given by the famous Belgian orchestra, which is visiting London. Speaking at this function, Earl Curzon, a member of the war cabinet, said in his reference to the royal couple:

"On Saturday morning they flew over here. They were the first King and Queen to descend upon our coast from the skies."

"To welcome our own King and Queen on the memorable occasion on Saturday last and to show their sympathy with the wounded sailors and soldiers, the King and Queen of the Belgians took a short respite from their life of watching and waiting in the angle of Belgium which is still left to them, watching for the next assault of the brutal enemy."

The Belgian King and Queen were greeted with great enthusiasm at the concert, where thousands of Belgians were assembled.

ARRESTS IN SOUTH AFRICA

Three Men Placed Under Arrest—One Recently From America.

Johannesburg, Union of South Africa, Sunday, July 7.—Today the first announcement was made of the concrete action taken by the government since the crisis of last week when the fact was published that three men had been arrested. The prisoners are S. T. Bonding, an imprisoned counsellor, S. H. Harnett, described as a butcher, who arrived from America six months ago, and a third man of whom little is known. It is alleged the men are international spies. Search has been made of the offices, workshops and dwellings of the accused. The utmost secrecy has been preserved.

UNIQUE CORONERS' VERDICT.

London, England, July 10.—Last night's lives through the dramatic misuse of warfare was the verdict of a coroner's jury in an east coast port after investigation of the death of two fishermen killed by a shrapnel from a German submarine which opened fire on an unarmed trader without warning.

PROHIBITION WINS IN SENATE

In First Show of Strength By Narrow Margin; Vote 36 to 33

WINS THE FIRST FIGHT

Will Fight Proposal As General Legislation Attached to Appropriation Bill

Washington, D. C., July 10.—Supporters of national prohibition as a war emergency measure won their first night battle, when the senate refused to attach a ruling by Senator Saulsbury of Delaware, president pro-tempore, that the prohibition amendment to the $11,600 emergency agricultural bill, should be stricken from the measure because it is general legislation.

Consideration of the amendment followed immediately with Senator Phelan of California offering a motion to strike out all references to win, the motion will come to a vote tomorrow and prohibition leaders expect to reach a final vote on the amendment within a few days unless more pressing legislation displaces the agricultural measure.

The point of order was raised by Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, who claimed the amendment which prohibits sale, except for export, of intoxicating liquors after January 1, 1919, and the manufacture of beer and wine after November 1, is general legislation attached to an appropriation in violation of the senate rules. Although the chair's decision was over-ruled by a narrow margin—35 to 23—prohibition leaders declared their full strength was not marshaled against the ruling, as many senators who favor prohibition voted to sustain the chair, and that the amendment will be adopted by an overwhelming majority.

Practically the entire day was spent in parliamentary discussion. Senator Penrose, in calling up his point of order, insisted that the amendment is general legislation and should be stricken out under the senate rules prohibiting attaching such legislation to appropriation bills. He was supported in this argument by Senators Phelan of California, Simmons of North Carolina, Smith of Georgia and others; while Senators Jones of Washington and Sheppard of Texas vigorously opposed it, arguing that the food production bill is a special appropriation measure and that consequently the rule did not apply to it.

While the argument was in progress, Senator Saulsbury interrupted to say that further discussion was unnecessary, as he had made a decision, and he then announced the ruling.

Mirrors in History.

During the middle ages, from the twelfth to the end of the fifteenth century, pocket mirrors or small hand mirrors carried at the girdle were considered a necessary part of a lady's toilet. The method of backing glass with metal for mirrors was well known in the middle ages, though steel and silver mirrors were almost exclusively used. It was in Venice that the making of glass mirrors on a commercial scale was first developed.

QUEEN CITY OF CATSKILLS

Pro-German Talk Causes Arrest of Stamford Boarder.

Stamford, July 10.—Fred Muller of New York, who has been for many seasons past a guest in Stamford, was arrested on Tuesday morning by a member of the state constabulary for outspoken German sympathizer talk. The young man had been called in the draft and served in camp about three weeks and was discharged for physical reasons and since then during his stay here has made many derogatory remarks in regard to the army service. His talk became so pronounced that boarders in the same house became incensed and his arrest followed. He was taken before Justice Houghtland and fined $10, with a warning that a repetition of the offense would meet with a severe penalty.

The arrest has caused great feeling in the matter against the man and is more than possible that further talk from him on the subject might cause him penalties that the pocket-book would not cover.

The fine inflicted while perhaps salutary in its effect does not seem to be, in the minds of the public, a sufficient punishment for the spreading of of and pro-German influence in this section.

Muller had been warned previous to his arrest that his talk would be followed by trouble to him if he did not desist, but it had no effect and he stated on his trial that he did not remember any such warning.

While Stamford welcomes its summer guests cordially it should have no room for any one of the opinions that the young man has expressed.

"EYES OF YOUTH"

THIS is the title of one of the plays of the season. With apologies to the author, we would like to borrow the term for use as the heading of this article, because it expresses precisely what we have in mind.

It is the Eyes of Youth that read most faithfully the Hearst newspapers; it is to them these papers appeal; it is because of the Eyes of Youth these papers prosper.

The Hearst papers are pre-eminently the spokesmen of Young America.

Youth has its faults. Sometimes it believes too much, hopes too much, dares too much.

It is radical. Sometimes it seems overconfident. It discounts danger. It has a dizzy faith in its star.

But for all that it is the sap of the world.

If it braves danger, it also causes progress.

If it upsets settled traditions, it also uproots old frauds, removes old institutions that have ceased to be useful, blows away ideas that once were green and juicy, but now are withered.

The Eyes of Youth question all things.

When the Hearst papers entered the field of American journalism Special Privilege had entrenched itself everywhere. Clever and unscrupulous men had taken advantage of their less nimble-witted neighbors, and through huge wealth units were reaching out to control the nation.

They dominated Business. No enterprise that defied them was allowed to live.

They controlled the Political Parties. Senators and Congressmen were their puppets. Campaigns were waged with their money.

They reached out to dominate Public Opinion. They exerted a tremendous influence upon the Press.

They used a fraction of their great money to contribute to the Church, to Education and to Charity. So doing they were creating the impression that whoever was attacking them and their methods of amassing money was also an enemy to Society and to all humane effort.

Into this situation, where the autocratic hand of unlimited wealth was slowly bringing about a paralysis of initiative, an undoing of democracy and a condition of rule by a favored Class, came the Hearst newspapers with the Eyes of Youth.

They questioned the whole programme with the recklessness of youth, that cares more for Truth than for sacred Traditions, more for Men and their Lives than for Money and its Rights.

They began to ask, "What is best for the People?" without regard to the profit or loss to any class. They stood for the Common Good, heedless of the alarm shrieks of Pride and Prejudice.

They uttered Democracy.

They made vocal the unsaid will of the great populace.

They spoke for them that heretofore had perforce been indignantly silent; for the Farmer, the Workman, the Storekeeper, the Stenographer, the Independent American everywhere that wanted only a chance to stand on his own feet and conduct his business as he chose.

The Hearst papers were not champions of any one class. Not of the laborer as against the capitalist, but for the just rights of both.

They thus became one of the most unifying factors in American life. They, as much as any other agency, made the worker in the factory and the worker in the bank or office feel that the spirit of America is co-operation, not competition. "Each for all and all for each" is the road to true Americanism.

To America, already stagnating morally because of her enormous increase in the things of luxury, growing into the old-age way of estimating all values by the dollar mark, came the Hearst papers with the Eyes of Youth.

They penetrated frauds. They looked through the armor of platitudes. They saw the Truth. And with voice unafraid they told what they saw.

The American people responded. The success of the Hearst papers has been the event of the new century.

Hailed at first as dangerous, radical, trouble-making, having sinister motives, unscrupulous and all such things, by those whose withers were being wrung, they may safely be said to have outlived this storm of abuse, and to have established themselves in the hearts of the American people.

For they saw with the Eyes of Youth. They spoke with the courage of youth. They struck with the vigor of youth.

The Hearst papers do not wish to pose as holier-than-thou reformers.

They entered the business to succeed as business institutions as well as editorial influences, which is an honorable ambition.

Prosperity is essential to power, and they conceived that the surest road to prosperity for a newspaper is the same road a dry goods store or plow factory must take—strict integrity, absolute sincerity and persistent honesty.

They believed that the American Public in time would respond to the efforts of a newspaper which day in and day out showed itself faithful to their interests. That confidence was well founded.

They laid their course by the north star. They placed entire reliance upon the principle that "Honesty is the best policy." In spite of storms and fogs, in spite of dangers and threats, they steered straight ahead.

That is why they have safely anchored in the port of public approval.

They saw. They had vision. For theirs were the Eyes of Youth. And they did not flinch.

Perhaps the Hearst papers have made some mistakes. Perhaps they may make some mistakes in the future. They are human institutions, and who may not make mistakes?

"The man who does not make mistakes," said ex-Congressman Fitzgerald the other day at the Iron and Steel annual banquet, "never accomplishes anything."

No man knows the future. This Republic is forging forward into the unknown. No one but Almighty God knows what the future has in store for us.

All of us guess wrong at times when we come to decide upon what is best to do.

But there are certain general principles that never vary. If we see those and stick to them we shall never go far astray. If we ask ourselves at each step, "What is Right? What is Just? What is for the benefit of all, and not of some one class?" we shall speedily slough off our errors and advance upon that course Destiny has marked out for us.

This the Hearst papers rightly claim to have done. They have been intensely human, and thus liable to error.

But they have been Eyes to the American people, and Eyes of Youth, through which this great people could see unclouded the vast purposes of Destiny, the unshakable laws of Justice, the everlasting pillars of Democracy.

When the President of the United States appeared before Congress and declared that the time had come for this country to line up with the other democracies of the world and resist the power of autocracy, the Hearst papers were among the first to enlist.

They threw their whole strength into the support of the war. And it was not a half-hearted and critical support.

They have stood squarely behind the lawfully elected Administration. The Commander-in-Chief of our Army and Navy has never had occasion to be distressed or alarmed at their attitude.

High-brows and low-brows have been busy finding fault. From disappointed politicians on the one hand to egotistic irresponsibles on the other, there have come snarlings and earplings at our regularly constituted authorities. What support they have given the war has been accompanied by an invariable sneer at those who are for us conducting the war. They have never handed the bread of praise to the Allies without spreading it with the butter of contempt for our President and his advisers.

The Hearst papers have never shared in this contemptible policy. Their backing of our cause has been 100 per cent.

They urged the draft. They advocated the larger navy. They worked for a mighty merchant marine. They exerted every energy to secure the success of the campaigns for the Liberty Loans and the Red Cross.

They saw that this is the Only Way.

Because theirs are the Eyes of Youth: Eyes of Faith, not Doubt; Eyes of Loyalty, not Criticism; Eyes of Confidence, not Pessimism.

The Eyes of Youth are not afraid of the Truth. It is the Truth that makes men free. It is the Truth that makes men strong.

The Hearst papers, so long as they continue their policy of Truth for Truth's sake, Truth alone without fear or favor, have no doubts as to their future.

For it is John Milton who wrote what they believe, and what the Eyes of Youth see:

"Thou all the winds of doctrine were let loose to play upon the earth, so Truth be in the field, we do ingloriously, by licensing and prohibiting, to mislead her strength. Let her and Falsehood grapple; who ever knew Truth put to the worse in a free and open encounter?"

THE COAL PROBLEM.

If coal is to win or lose the war, then the conflict is to be fought out in a comparatively small section of the country, east of the Alleghenies and north of the Potomac river. Most of the battle, in fact, will be fought in Pennsylvania, since it is in that state that a very large part of the bituminous and practically all anthracite coal is mined.

There is need, so the fuel administration authorities say, of not less than 50,000,000 tons of bituminous coal this year against 74,000,000 tons in 1917; and of 85,000,000 tons of anthracite originating in the same area, against about 70,000,000 tons a year ago. In all 25 per cent of America's coal must be delivered on 15 per cent of the country's most congested railways.

These figures are worth studying, and the more because it is on just this area that our own section of New York state entirely depends for its fuel supply. The summer season is naturally that in which railway conditions are most favorable, and the accidents and delays least numerous. For this reason, among others, our citizens are asked to order and get in all the coal that it is possible for them to store and pay for, that is of course within the percentage of supply which is fixed by the government. This done, the railways will largely be released from the local traffic, and will later be able to devote their motive power more largely to the through line business.

To get in your share of the coal early is an obligation which devolves upon every citizen. If it cannot be ordered, at least the orders can be booked, and that this should be done is a right individual precaution, since the deliveries are now in the neighborhood of two months behind orders.

CUT OUT NON-ESSENTIALS.

If the American people would keep the price level of all commodities from going higher and still higher, they must do two things: They must save and they must cut off non-essentials. As yet the people in this country apparently do not comprehend the meaning of economy.

In the thrift campaign in England there was coined the expression "the Gospel of Goods and Services." This gospel must be inculcated in the American people. The public must think in terms of labor and materials, or the things that they produce, rather than in terms of money. Money has no value except as a medium of exchange. The man who received, only a few years ago, $3 a day for his services secured about five bushels of wheat—the basic foodstuff. The man who receives $5 a day now gets only two bushels of wheat. Other foodstuffs and necessities are largely on relatively the same basis with wheat. This is an illustration of the reason people should think in terms of goods and services rather than in terms of money.

The people must cut out the demand for non-essentials in order to save and to keep the prices from mounting higher. The manufacture of non-essentials takes labor and coal, it causes car shortage and railway congestion, and prices go up with the difficulty of getting supplies. The road to thrift is by the reduction of consumption and, of course, production of non-essentials, releasing the labor and materials for production of the essentials.

MONEY FOR TOWN HIGHWAYS

County Treasurer Johnson Sends Checks for State Funds to Supervisors.

County Treasurer B. G. Johnson of Cooperstown received yesterday morning a check for $28,985.04, being the sum apportioned by the state of New York as state aid for the maintenance of town highways where such roads are worked and maintained by the money tax system. As all the towns of the county are under this system, the apportionment is to all the towns of Otsego. The checks were made out by Mr. Johnson yesterday for the twenty-four towns, and the money will no doubt reach practically all the supervisors today or tomorrow. The apportionment by towns is as follows:

POSTAL EMPLOYEES SMILING

All Receiving Increase in Salary of $200, Effective on July 1—Arrangement of Vacations for Clerks and Carriers.

Employees of the Oneonta post office engaged in the postal service from the assistant postmaster down to the youngest clerk are all smiling these days because of the receipt by Postmaster Beams of an official notice from Washington granting to all the attaches of the office named an increase in pay amounting to $200 per annum. The order is effective from July 1. The order affects also all the carriers in the city, which is welcomed. Postmaster Beams' salary is fixed by legislative enactment and will not be increased. He is a victim of the law which precludes an increase during his term, despite the fact that the increased volume of business done the previous year would have entitled him, under the old regulations, to an increase of 100 per cent.

The men in charge of the building are assigned to the treasury department and no notification of any increase to them has been received, although it is assumed that some increase will be granted them the present year. They received comparatively recently a flat increase of 10 per cent, but it is assumed that they will be granted an increase before the year is over.

Vacation Periods.

The following vacation periods for the clerks at the office has been arranged: July 1 to 15, Mr. Neal; July 15 to August 6, Mr. Hopkins; August 6 to August 23, Mr. Hall; August 23 to September 11, Assistant Postmaster Dewar; September 11 to September 28, Mr. Wilson; September 28 to October 16, Mr. Ross; October 16 to November 2, Mr. Rogers; November 2 to November 18, Mr. Fish.

The vacations for carriers are arranged as follows: July 1 to 15, Messrs Lewis and Hickey; July 15 to August 6, Messrs Denton and Webster; August 6 to 23, Messrs Southworth and Potter; August 23 to September 11, Messrs Mahon and Burrows; September 11 to 28, Mr. Richardson.

KELLOGG ENDS BROOME TERM.

Compels Litigants to Settle Nine Interlocking Cases.

After a supreme court term lasting four weeks, Justice A. L. Kellogg of this city returned yesterday afternoon from Binghamton, the last action on an exceedingly long calendar having been tried that morning. This ends the spring terms of trial court in the district, and they will not be resumed until September.

One of the last cases on the calendar, and one the trial of which was begun on Tuesday was known as the Benedict case, and in its ramifications it was doubtless the outstanding feature of the calendar. The action was brought by E. B. Jenkins as trustee in bankruptcy to set aside certain transfers of the property of Adelbert E. Benedict, but along with this went three other actions in which Benedict and his daughters were defendants, and others in which Charles A. Stevens, a tenant of a Benedict farm, was plaintiff. Some of these cases were in the appellate division, four on the calendar of the Broome term and others all along the line from justice court up, the number of actions being nine altogether.

After hearing evidence for half a day, Justice Kellogg told the parties that they should get together and settle all the cases; and he gave them an hour to do it. The hour stretched out to the full afternoon, and the justice sat in at repeated intervals, but in the end all the cases were settled out of court and the parties at least went home better pleased and better friends than they would have been had the litigation proceeded.

ACCREDITED HERDS.

Can Be Shipped Anywhere in United States on Securing a Permit.

Dr. H. B. Leonard, a federal veterinarian, is in this state working with the Animal Husbandry department of the Council of Farms and Markets. Dr. Leonard is this week working in Otsego county with County Farm Bureau Manager Floyd S. Barlow explaining the accredited plan of the federal and state governments for testing cattle for tuberculosis. Any herd which is found free from tuberculosis after two annual tests will be placed in an accredited list and will be tested by state and federal veterinarians annually. This avoids the necessity for testing animals just before being sold or to go outside of the state and again on arriving at another state. A breeder whose herd is accredited simply secures a permit and can ship anywhere in the United States.

Mothers' Club Holds Picnic.

On account of the unfavorable weather on Wednesday, the picnic of the Mothers' club, which was announced for Neah-wa park, was held in the parlors of the First Baptist church. Though the attendance was not large it was entirely satisfactory considering the adverse conditions. The program at the church included a piano solo by Mrs. Fred House and an instructive and illuminating talk on Child Welfare work by Mrs. E. J. Farley, after which refreshments were served in the dining room of the church. The session was from 2 to 5 o'clock.

The next meeting of the Mothers' club will be held the first Wednesday in September.

A Report Worth Reading.

The excellent report of the Otsego National bank, published in another column, is well worth reading. Safety first, and always has been, its motto, as is evidenced by its directorate, the strongest of any in this vicinity. It will be in the future, as it has been in the past, the leader in the support of the government in the sale of certificates of indebtedness, bonds and War Savings stamps.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS

Few Failures.

The first half of this year showed fewer failures in the United States than at any similar period since 1907, while June was the lightest month since September, 1905.

And another good thing to contemplate is the announcement that there will be no summer shut-downs this year. Everybody can keep at work—and everybody must keep at work.—[Utica Observer.]

A Forecast.

American Confidence.

America's confidence in the ultimate triumph of its cause is shown by the frequency with which people everywhere refer to "after the victory" instead of "after the war."—[Troy Record.]

What Does Wilson Want?

"What Does Wilson Want?" is the title of a book published in Germany. If any further information is really desired, there are a million American soldiers, in round numbers, over there to furnish the answer.—[New York World.]

Changing Conditions.

It is no longer a question as to whether a woman is married when they come to enlist teachers for schools. The important question now is, "Can You Teach?" And then comes the rather timorous inquiry, "Will You Teach?"—[Utica Observer.]

THE KITCHEN SOLDIER

Some Definite, Pertinent and Helpful Suggestions About Substitutes.

It is the duty of a soldier to obey orders; and the commands for the kitchen soldier come directly from Herbert Hoover. They are voluntary for the women of Oneonta and of all parts of the country, but when the order comes to use substitutes in order to send wheat to the starving peoples across the sea, the women will obey. Here are a dozen suggestions which she will do well to read carefully and keep in mind when carrying on her bread campaign against the Hun:

1.—That she is performing a very definite service for her country.

2.—That she will have to spend extra time and money.

3.—That it will be necessary to help her family change their standards of eating.

4.—That the substitutes have less gluten, the property which gives elasticity to wheat, and makes the bread light.

5.—That good yeast breads can be made without wheat flour, but that they must not be judged by the old standards.

6.—That breads made of substitutes are heavier and closer in texture than wheat bread.

7.—That quick rising gives the best results.

8.—That more yeast and baking powder are necessary to make a light product.

9.—That the best loaf is made from dough which is so soft that it must be stirred, not kneaded.

10.—That small loaves made from heavy cereals have better shape and texture than the large ones.

11.—That slow baking gives the best results—1 to 1 1/2 hours.

12.—That wheat saved here means food for the boys "over there."

Rev. Cavert Leaves for Examination.

Rev. Walter Dudley Cavert left on Monday for New York, where he will undertake his examinations for a chaplaincy in the United States army. George Honness took Mr. and Mrs. Cavert to Kingston in his automobile and from there he went by train to the city. A union service was held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening in which the pastors of the different churches of the place assisted, as a farewell to him. The Presbyterian church will continue its regular services and the pulpit will be occupied by Mr. Cavert's brother for a month or more.

DR. HENSEY'S LECTURE TONIGHT

Able Sermon Last Evening by Rev. Austin at Elm Park Church.

Continuing the dedicatory week's services at the Elm Park church, Rev. Robert E. Austin of Edmondson, first pastor and organizer of the church, delivered an interesting sermon to a large congregation last evening following the usual opening services. His text was taken from the 26th verse of the first chapter of I Corinthians: "Behold Your Calling." The speaker called attention to the fact that we are called away from sin to a life of righteousness and love and service. He emphasized the latter point especially and the duty of the church and its supporters is to serve. An enjoyable feature of the service was a solo rendered by Miss Mayer.

This evening following a song service conducted by Mr. Wells, Rev. Dr. Hensey, district superintendent, will give his illustrated lecture, "The Yosemite Valley," which is well worth the hearing. The admission is free and it is hoped that a large audience will gather to hear it.

FOUR LIVES ENDANGERED

IN MOTOR CAR ACCIDENT NEAR NEER'S SUMMER HOTEL AT DAVENPORT.

Car of C. L. Herbster of Irwin, Pa., Crashes into Side of Buick of W. O. Brannaman — Mr. Brannaman and Bert Smith Injured.

Bert Smith of the Buick agency sustained painful injuries to his right arm, the ligaments being torn loose, and he was otherwise bruised and shaken up, and W. O. Brannaman of The Oneonta garage sustained ruptured blood vessels of the left leg in a motor car accident occurring about 200 feet south of the Neer summer hotel above East Davenport Wednesday afternoon, about 5 o'clock, when the Buick car of Mr. Brannaman, in which they were riding en route to Stamford, was run into by the Studebaker car of C. L. Herbster of Irwin, Pa., bound toward this city. The latter and the woman with him were uninjured.

As the two cars approached the scene of the accident one of the big trucks of the Sheffield Farms company was ahead of the Herbster car, and the woman who was driving turned in behind it, apparently to await the passing of the Brannaman car. She evidently concluded that she could not stop and swung back into the center of the highway again, hitting the Brannaman car, the forward wheels striking the footboards directly back of the hood. The impact forced the Buick car out of the road and against the bank at the side of the road. Mr. Smith was thrown over the windshield and landed face upward on the hood of the car with his right arm pinned between the mud guard and the hood by the pressure of the Herbster car. The seat of the Buick was torn loose and it with Mr. Brannaman was thrown over on the bank.

As soon as possible the Sheffield truck, which had stopped when the accident occurred, pulled the Studebaker car away from the Buick, liberating Mr. Smith. Mr. Smith and Mr. Brannaman were brought to the city by E. H. Morris and Dr. Mills attended them. No more serious results are indicated than as stated. Mr. Smith, while not rendered unconscious by the accident, suffered slightly from shock.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbster were at The Oneonta last night. Their car, which was quite badly damaged, was brought to the "Right" garage and Mr. Brannaman's Buick to his own garage. It also was damaged, the rear right wheel being crushed in, the hub cap being buried a foot in the bank at the side of the road. That none of the occupants were not more seriously hurt seems marvelous.

RED CROSS SPEAKER HERE.

Tells of Work of Home Service Department at Normal This Morning.

This morning, at 10:15 o'clock, at the State Normal assembly hall, Waldo Adams Ames, assistant director of civilian relief of the Atlantic division, American Red Cross, will deliver an address to which not only the students but all residents of the city are invited. Mr. Ames is here to give an outline of the Home Service work of the organization. At The Oneonta last evening he said: "We have been asking for material assistance in the work and the people have responded handsomely. Now we want to inform the contributors relative to the service we are rendering the men away from home and to inform also the friends at home of our methods. Mr. Ames comes to the city by special arrangement with Dr. Bugbee and it is hoped that there will be numerous citizens who will embrace this opportunity to learn about the activities of the Red Cross.

Picking Ripe Tomatoes.

Mayor Ceperley is an aspirant for honors as a gardener and reports the picking of ripe tomatoes from his garden. He is putting in considerable time when official and business engagements will permit, upon his war gardens at West End, where the reality company has planted numerous building lots, expecting to supply all of the stockholders with winter vegetables. Whether City Attorney Becker shares in the products of the garden is in doubt, as the latter is reported quite busily engaged either at his office or in the vicinity of Bull hall when the weather is favorable to garden work.

Rebuilding Park Houses.

William Stanton, who purchased the Mosher house removed from the Huntington park site, is using the material in building a double house on Washington avenue.

Sidney A. Clinton, who purchased the two other Church street houses on the park plot, is employing the same in building operations on Jackson street.

NOTED AUTHOR AND LECTURER

Food Conservation Discussed in Oneonta Saturday by Mrs. Beatrice Forbes Robertson Hale.

The daughter of a prominent English family which is devoting much of its means and energy toward helping win the war, and the wife of an American, her country by adoption, there is no one perhaps better fitted to interpret the ideals and aspirations of this war and the means by which they are being attained, than Mrs. Beatrice Forbes Robertson Hale, the noted author and lecturer who will speak at the First Presbyterian church, Saturday, July 17, at 7 o'clock on "Winning the War."

Because of her training on the stage, where she was long prominent in England and America, Mrs. Hale has a sense of the dramatic which enables her to present her facts in their most interesting and striking lights. Since her retirement from the theatre in 1914 she has won an enviable place as a lecturer and author.

Believing that food is one of the most important factors in the winning of the war, Mrs. Hale is contributing a great deal of her time to the United States Food Administration, speaking in the cause of conserving food to thousands of people throughout the country. Her stirring address on "Winning the War" deals with many phases of the great conflict as well as those particular ones of food, and the work of women in the war.

She will make a tour of New York state during the greater part of July in the interests of the Food administration. The public is invited to attend the lecture which is free.

CHILD WELFARE WORK.

Canvassers for the Several Wards Begin Work Today.

A list has been made of the women of the city who are to co-operate in the canvass to be undertaken this week for the purpose of securing the names and home addresses of all children of the city who are under the age of five years. This work is a very important one and is preliminary to that of weighing and measuring children, which will be undertaken next week by Mrs. DeLong, school nurse, and Miss Anna Sweeney, county tuberculosis nurse, with the nurses of the city as assistants. It is a very important undertaking which is being carried on as a part of the general home welfare work. In this campaign for "better babies," it is hoped that all mothers will co-operate.

The preliminary canvass, which begins today, will be in charge of the following in the several wards:

First ward—Miss Lillian Slade, Miss Bernice Saxton.

Second ward—Mrs. H. Spencer Rowe, Mrs. George S. Slade.

Third ward—Miss Helen Seybolt.

Fourth ward—Mrs. W. H. Mosher, Miss Margaret Elliott.

Fifth ward—Mrs. H. W. Lee, Mrs. Frank Bouch.

Sixth ward—Miss Anna Larrabee, Mrs. Mabel Horton, Mrs. N. S. Burd and Mrs. Archie Linaberry.

The canvassers above named will appoint assistants who will aid in the work. It is hoped that there will be cordial co-operation on the part of mothers in giving the desired information, and also in the weighing and measuring, which will be done later at convenient places in various parts of the city.

TO SELECT SEVEN DELEGATES.

Republican County Committee to Meet Here Saturday Next.

The Republican County committee has been called by Chairman Frank G. Sherman to meet in this city on Saturday next for the purpose of selecting seven delegates to represent the county at the unofficial convention to be held at Saratoga Springs. The number of delegates is the same as when regular conventions will be held.

The question that is puzzling the members of the County committee is how many women to give a place on the delegation? The number of enrolled women Republicans is not large in the county and still they desire to be and should be recognized on the delegation.

Fire Loss Adjusted.

The loss in the recent fire upon the stock of the Oneonta Department store, mostly done by water in the basement, has been adjusted at $1,252.99 and upon the building of Mr. Bresee at $113.50. The loss upon the stock is distributed among some 59 policies. The loss upon the Roman building occupied by the Quality Silk mill has not been adjusted. The adjusters have been in the city appraising the value of the Silk mill property, but as the insurance was placed through a New York city broker, the local agents may not be informed of the adjustment.

ADVERTISING A Necessity

WHEN goods are scarce and prices high, people are more appreciative than ever of the right kind of advertising.

They are seeking information. They want to know how to buy to the best advantage. They want to know how to fill their needs and avoid waste. They welcome news of desirable substitutes for the things the country needs to conserve.

They read the newspapers carefully. The merchant or manufacturer who does not advertise is not only missing the purely selfish opportunity, but he is failing in the service he owes to his customers.

DEATHS

Mrs. Arthur D. Ogden.

George W. Miller received intelligence yesterday of the death of his only sister, Mrs. Arthur D. Ogden, which occurred at the family home in Schenectady at 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning, after a long illness from cancer, she having been confined to her room since January 1 last. Her maiden name was Delina M. Miller and she was the daughter of the late Ezra Miller. She was born in Franklin July 22, 1858, and was well known in that town. She married Mr. Ogden when a young woman. After a few years' residence in that town, they removed to Oneonta Plains. Later they became residents of this city, her husband having for a number of years been engaged in the music store business here with Mr. Fisher under the firm name of Fisher & Ogden. Later they removed to Utica and afterward to Schenectady, where they have for years made their home.

Mrs. Ogden is survived by her husband; one daughter, Nellie, the wife of Clarence Staley, residing at the parental home; and by the one brother named. While the definite funeral arrangements have not been received here, it is assumed that the funeral will be held on Friday at Schenectady and that the body will be taken to Franklin, her old home, for burial.

MRS. MARY BOARDMAN DEAD.
Esteemed Resident of Schenectady and Native of Elk River.
Schenectady, July 16.—Mrs. Mary Boardman died at her residence in this village, Wednesday morning, July 16. She had been in poor health for several months and had failed gradually until the end came. The deceased was born at Elk Creek June 18, 1825. She was the youngest daughter of Nathan and Beusey (Babcock) Perry, and was the last member of her generation. She was married in 1850 to Levi Boardman, who died 46 years ago. Two sons were born of the marriage. She is survived by her son, Edward Boardman, with whom she made her home, and ten grandchildren. Mrs. Boardman was a woman of most sterling character and was highly esteemed by a large circle of friends.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday at 2 p. m. from the residence. Rev. C. H. Coigrove of the Baptist church officiating and interment will be made in the family plot in the Schenectady cemetery.

Taken to Rensselaerville for Burial.
The body of Jasper Carrington, who died on Tuesday of heart disease at the home of his son-in-law, Edward Sherman, at East Meredith, was brought yesterday afternoon to Oneonta and that evening taken to his former home in Rensselaerville for burial. Mr. Carrington was 74 years of age and for most of his life had been a prominent Albany county farmer. Following the death of his wife about a year ago, he came to East Meredith, where he had since resided with his daughter, who with a son in Schenectady are the only near relatives.

Picnicked at Three Mile Point.
Five motor car loads of members of Martha chapter, Order Eastern Star, journeyed to Three Mile Point on Otsego lake yesterday and picnicked at that attractive spot. Despite the drippings, which prevailed much of the day, the event was enjoyed, the members of the party making much merriment. The time was mostly passed under the pavilion until after the feast, when the party motored to Cooperstown and spent the remainder of the afternoon.

COST OF NEWSPAPERS.

Special Taxes and Increased Mailing Rates Affect Publishers.

Add to the increased labor, raw material and freight costs, the increased costs of mail, the special taxes on profits, the impending taxes on advertising which will be included in the new revenue bill; and the reader sitting in comfort at home to read the daily gist of news will begin to realize the troubles of the publishers who provide him with such a fine service at such nominal cost.

To top of things, add the fact that newspaper shops everywhere are being shot to pieces by the inevitable and relentless demands of the draft, that the production of newspaper print paper has been averaging 1,000 tons less each month than the demand for it, and that we are facing a famine in paper on which this editorial is printed—oh, well, what's the use!

We hope that it will not be necessary to cut our papers down to the 12 by 16 inch single sheet of the Berliner Zeitung am Mittag; to the six-sheet, 15 by 28 inch papers of Great Britain; to the two and four page small-size dailies of Paris; but it looks mighty like there will be something radical doing in the newspaper business of America in the near future, and the reader and the advertiser have got to prepare to pay for the service now rendered.—[Auburn Citizen.]

Francis Sinclair Resigns.

Francis Sinclair, who for a year and more has been telegraph editor upon The Star, has resigned the position, as he expects before the close of the month to enter the service from his home district in Brooklyn. He departed yesterday to visit friends in Port Byron, after which he may return here for a short stay before leaving to report for service. Mr. Sinclair has proven capable and efficient and his many friends both among business associates and about the city will wish him abundant success. He is a young man of the type and The Star parts with him reluctantly, although of course recognizing the obligation that he with all other young men owe to the nation.

Somebody Had Your Build in Mind

You don't think of your underwear except when it sags, or bunches, or binds. Then you condemn all the underwear makers, whereas, it's yourself you ought to blame for not taking a little more time when you bought the garments and making sure you got a fit. Leastwise, that's usually the case! Be sure some manufacturer has built a union suit just right for you. We can help you find it if you won't insist on buying too quickly. We're here to help if you'll let us.

NATIONAL ARMY MEN EAGER TO GET INTO FRONT LINE TO STOP BOCHE

"They'll Make the Finest Soldiers in World," Says General Overseas—Soldiers Determined to Fight to Finish—Snipers Take Daring Chances in "Pot Hunting"—Negro Troops Furnish Much of Humor in War Zone.

Enough of the American National army has arrived in France to blur out the predictions that this army will be one of the finest bodies of military men in the world. I recently went to a section of France where new troops are quartered for final training, writes Don Martin in the New York Herald. There I saw the vanguard of the millions who were legally selected to serve their country. A general who has been all his life in the army fairly glowed in admiration of them.

"They are a splendid lot of boys," the officer said. "They are proud to be here. They are sorry for the boys at home who are not to help in the great battle for democracy. They want to go right in the line. They realize the dangers fully, but that doesn't worry them. They have had their eyes opened fully to the wonderful sacrifices France has made. They have seen how the villages are stripped of everything but the very old and the very young, and yet they have seen how determined and cheerful the country is. So they are proud to be here, and they are going to make the finest soldiers the world has ever seen."

Superlatives ordinarily are not permitted by the censorship when reference is made to Americans. A deeply grounded principle of the American censorship is that America, while glorying in her own idealism and achievements, must not forget that France and England have been at war for nearly four years and have set a very high standard for Uncle Sam. But the superlatives indulged in by the general were sincere. He actually believes the National army will be as fine a lot of men as ever stood in a uniform, and after seeing them and talking with them in more than fifty villages I must say that I think he has prophetic vision.

PLAY GAME WITH BIG GUN

Frenchmen Wager as to Hour the Bombardment of Paris Will Start.

Paris.—A new sport has made its appearance in Paris as a result of the long-range cannon bombardment. One may drop in at any cafe or restaurant any day and find the game in progress.

After the dinner or between sips of coffee a paper is passed around with the question: "At what hour will the big cannon fire its next shot?" Each person sits in the time he thinks the sauerkraut less German by striking out the hyphen. It has been officially placed on the list of patriotic foods and it is believed more would be eaten if given the name "pickled cabbage."

Another Candidate for Democratic Nomination for Governor—Women Seeking Political Offices—Norwich Arrests and Sends to Jail Russian Who Refuses to Fight or Work.

Russian Refused to Work.
Norwich, July 10.—Tony Baczycki was arrested by the sheriff near White's Pond Saturday and brought to this city. Baczycki is a Russian, another I. W. W., and will serve six months on the county farm, having been sentenced there Monday afternoon by Judge Kent because he refuses to work or fight. When searched here Saturday before being placed in a cell at the county jail, Baczycki was found to have a razor-shaped weapon on his person in addition to numerous other contrivances for defense or attack.

Now Miss Hattie Jacobs, of Oxford, an employee of the postoffice there, comes along and has the endorsement of the Democratic County committee for the party nomination for county clerk.

Finds Glass in Bread.
Cohoes, July 10.—Joseph Haurah-an, of 188 Main street, complained to Chief of Police Hayden today that he found glass in bread purchased from a Troy baker on two occasions recently. On the first occasion he threw the bread away but today he turned the second loaf containing glass over to the authorities.

City of Clubs.
London has the name of the world's greatest club city, but as a matter of fact, in this respect it is poor second to Havana, Cuba. The clubs of Havana are larger, more numerous and more powerful than the clubs of any other city in the world. Everybody in Havana belongs to a club. There is one club there with 45,000 members. Out of a population of 300,000, it is estimated that the total club membership exceeds 125,000. No other city can even approach this proportion.

Lark's Wondrous Notes.
Nowhere but in England and Ireland can the song of the lark be heard at its best. How human beings can kill such beautiful songsters and eat them is difficult to understand. The wondrous notes of these birds, never to be forgotten by those who have heard them, should be sufficient to assure them of their value in destroying locusts.—Exchange.
